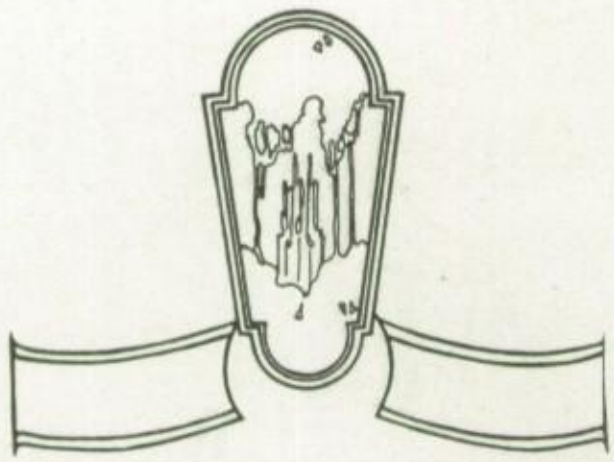
JAY



FOREWORD

The purpose of the 1928 Blue Jay is to portray so accurately and vividly the events of the past year that each student will be able to live them again as he reads, and each outsider will wish he had been a participant.

May the achievements here recorded be but stepping stones to greater accomplishments.

BLUE JAY

To the people of Sabetha, living and dead, who realized that in education lies the strength of a democracy and who established the Sabetha High School with all the opportunities for advancement and culture, we affectionately dedicate the 1928 "Blue Jay."

VICTOR HIETT

MARIE CROCKER

The Class of 1928 wishes to express deepest appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Hiett and Miss Crocker for their devotion to our interests and for the inspiration they have given us to higher achievements.

BITS AND BITES

Here is the faculty of the Sabetha High,
We hcpe that the memory of us will not die,
We here struggled along the best that we could,
And just a few praises will do us some good.

F. C. Marks is superintendent of the school,
He governs us by force and rule.
He cannot type, swim or skate,
But to school he is proud he has never been late.

Next comes our principal, Victor C. Hiett,
His only trouble is that of his diet,
He has a dog Faust, of which he is proud,
And into his car for a ride does he crowd.

Anna Marie is so full of glee
That one of our town boys has nabbed her,
She can cook and can sew, and is rarin' to go,
We can easily see why he grabbed her.

Mr. Paul W. Barber is happy indeed,
For with a car and "Nellie" what more does he need.
He is a fine fellow and a jolly good teacher,
We are wondering how soon it will end with a preacher.

Little but mighty is Nellie C. Nicholas,
To say she is tall is surely ridiculous.
We find her at work ready to do her will,
And after school she's in the Oldsmobile.

Our Social Science teacher as you all may know,
Is none other than Mr. Ayrault.
He works all day long and at night very late,
For with a wife and family, his duties are great.

Miss Bernice Gorsuch in room No. 4
Teaches Latin and French down on the first floor.
She has black curly hair and bewitching eyes
To win her heart many a man tries.

Out on the field we find little Chester,
He is a good coach, teacher, and jester.
He is happy go lucky and is full of fun,
And many a game his teams have won.

Lucille Hause teaches us how to say
Our English language in the very best way.
The piano she plays very good by ear,
And speeds up and down in her car without fear.

Since this is leap year, Miss Kathryn Scruggs thought,
So a husband she got and off did she trot.
They have changed the classes so that Miss Dubach
Is taking Miss Slimm's place in the Study Hall.

Slimm, Slimm, graceful, not thin,
Charming, pleasant and neat as a pin.
Yes, these are a few of the requisite features
Of one of the finest of study-hall teachers!

To mention Miss Marshall we must not fail,
For all day long she teaches the scale.
Her duties are many and with a smile they are done,
And a great many friends thru' her work has she won.

To the tune of the broom does Wayne Kimmel work,
And never a day his job does he shirk,
Sometimes he is happy, sometimes he is cross,
We all must admit he'd make a good boss.

This concludes the faculty of Sabetha High School,
And they are responsible for many a rule.
At times they seem cross and won't let you play,
But you will be grateful to them someday.

SENIORS MEMOIRS

You say that the history I'm to relate
Of this great class of Nineteen Twenty-eight
This task to Ayrault should have been given
For well we know he's the only historian living.

The first of September in the year of Twenty-four
Seventy-five children came to Sabetha's High School door.
Professor Marks with glances wide
Said, "You are welcome here, just step inside."

The Profs were all a patient lot,
Our frights and tremblings were soon forgot.
With Jones, Bearg, Gravatte and Foster too,
Our class moved on the whole year through.

At the Hallowe'en party in the High School gym
We joined the Sophomores with all our vim.
The prettiest girl and the best looking boy
From the Freshmen were chosen, much to our joy.

As Sophomores in the year of Twenty-five
We chose Holland Lyons to preside,
With Alderfer, Bearg and Lukert to assist,
None could the class meetings e'er resist.

At all football and basketball games in sight
Watters and Lyons put up a good fight.
To the Alpha Club many of our class did belong,
Our boys and girls both were often heard in song.

The Junior year was filled with problems thick,
For our leaders, Fenner, Cave, Bearg and Myrick.
"Engaged by Wednesday," and the "Land of Dolls," too,
Gave fame and renown that to us was due.

Yes, the Seniors we did entertain,
For from having fun they could not refrain.
The horns did toot and the serpentine flew,
A jollier time no one ever knew.

The years have flown 'till now 'tis twenty-eight,
And here we are Seniors so sedate.
Ayres, Weaver, Alderfer and Livengood,
With Hiett and Crocker our trials understood.

In debate, football, basketball and track
You will find our class no numbers lack.
The parts were well taken in the Senior play,
And what can you say of our sneak day.

As we pass out through the High School door
We bid farewell as others have before.
May the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors too,
Bring honor and success to the White and Blue.

—Ruth Jackson.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS FROM NOW

Twenty-five years ago, the senior class of 1928, started a circulating letter to which each member contributed his own prophecy. The letter has been opened and we find:

I take this means of announcing to my friends of Sabetha that my interests are centered in Morrill. Yours Truly, Harry Brougher.

It is my present aim to be married, and live in one of the old colonial mansions at Fairview, Kansas. Respectively, Mildred Keim.

I have been chosen as manager of the A. and P. store, located at Quebec, Canada. A Classmate, Virgil Henry.

The superintendent of schools has requested my signing of a ten-year contract as teacher of the Berwick School. As Ever, Lillian Nickles.

I have consented to model frocks in one of the most exclusive dress shops in Paris. Sincerely Yours, Edith Bockenstette.

It is my hope to win first place in some beauty contest, enter the movies, and star my first picture in 1935. Yours Forever, Lyle Myrick.

With my two children and their governess, Faye Stoner, I intend to make a tour of Europe, displaying my art in the Boutique-des-Beaux art studio in Paris. Lovingly Yours, Dolores Teague.

Under the influence and recommendation of Coach Hanley, I have consented to attend K. S. A. C. Truly Yours, Roscoe Smith.

I will live on the farm and raise Rhode Island Red chickens, probably entering them at the state fair. Cordially, Helen Lanning.

Not many know my secret, but I am making my home in Omaha, and intend to be an all-around sport with my husband. Your Friend, Lola Hanson.

The height of my ambition is centered in an exclusive dress shop in Kansas City. Your Classmate, Wendell Miller.

We have signed a contract to join the Little Symphony Orchestra, which will be traveling in Europe. With our best wishes, Gracie and Thelma Myers.

Since California is beckoning for me, I feel it my duty to give up my management of the Duckwall Store, here in Sabetha, and give my talent to the Secret Service Department, at Los Angeles. Wishing you success, John Masters.

I have consented to enter the swimming contest at Miami, Florida, representing my state, Kansas. Cordially, Zuella Smith.

When a question arises in your mind
Concerning colors, trimmings and design,
Come, I will help you choose
Just the correct ones you should use.
Your friend, Dorothy Keck.

My strength and winning ways encouraged me to accept the position as lion tamer with the Hoo-Doo circus, at present the largest company traveling in the United States. As ever, George Ayers.

After teaching English in the University of Illinois, I will accept the honored position as Dean of Women at Ward Belmont. Your truly, Bernice Alderfer.

In order to make people attractive, I am establishing a beauty parlor at Montana. Cordially, Helena Ayers.

I intend to spend at least four years at the Kansas State Agricultural College for the purpose of learning the improved methods of farming. Sincerely, Virgil Myers.

I am going to attend Strickler's Business College, and then be a business woman of the world. Lovingly yours, Elta Mae Hiskey.

I expect to make a tour of the world, finding, perhaps, a suitable man with whom to spend my future life. Best wishes, Opal Miller.

Under the management of John B. Rogers Producing company, I will stage musical comedies throughout the United States. With regards, Forrest Bearge.

You might not have thought that ten years from now I will be one of the most experienced chemistry teachers in the world. Your friend, Russell Miller.

I am now working for my fifth solid gold cup as the most accurate typist in the world. With love to all, Calvin Newlin.

I intend to spend most of my time writing, and some day become noted like Jeane Stratton Porter. Your Classmate, Marie Lukert.

I am planning to apply for a position in the Woolworth building at Chicago. Respectfully, Alice King.

With my long hair I intend to win my fortune as a movie star. Yours truly, Golda Diffenderfer.

My profession will be teaching others the things I have been taught. Your classmate, Ruth Jackson.

Henry Ford is looking for some one to leave in possession of his tin factories. I am applying for the position. Your friend, Harold Fike.

In 1932 when attending the theatre in Chicago, you will see me sitting in a wonderful jeweled boat, ready to make my descent for the next dance. Yours truly, Virginia Fenner.

I expect to spend the younger days of my life in debating against the McNary-Haugen bill for the interest of a man with whom I have been associating for some time. Your friend, Marion Arick.

Tune in on station K. O. I. at Denver and listen to the soft melodious strains of my twenty-six piece orchestra. Sincerely, Harold Hennigh.

My name is Livengood, as you know,
But a secret revealed will not keep it so.
The principle of Bancroft, by the name of Stone,
Has asked me to keep for him a neat little home. Respectfully, Lorine Livengood.

I expect to get my masters degree in foreign language and teach in the University of Pennsylvania. I remain, LeRoy Aeschliman.

It seems that Charleston dancing has become a thing of the past, but twenty-five years from now will find me teaching the tangled steps to the younger generation. A classmate, Kathryn Maynard.

As revealed in my journalistic work, it seems quite possible that I should take up the work of sport editor for the Kansas City Star. As ever, Ray Martin.

As secretary to a prominent lawyer in Los Angeles I expect to accompany him on business trips to Europe. Respectfully yours, Jeanne Gravatte.

In the field of nursing you will find me wielding a skilled hand. After that becomes monotonous I intend to take up music. Your friend, Lucille Cave.

Signed: Helen Foster, Donna Durstine.

"CLASS WILL"—"1928"

We, the Class of 1928, cheerfully will this 23rd day of May to our underclassmen, all of our wonderful traits, talents, and ability to those needing it.

I, George Ayers, leave all of my shorthand pencils to Woodrow Stalder; may he burn the rubber off with this attained marvelous speed.

I, Lorene Livengood, cannot leave all my cheerful disposition, but will consent to give and hope she may keep the boys out as well as I have done in the past.

I, Lorene Leivengood, cannot leave all my cheerful disposition, but will consent to give Floyd Heikes a little.

I, Bernice Alderfer, leave my ability to grow tall to Lucille Lichty.

I, Marion Arick, with pleasure, leave my gift of gab to Vera Keller.

I, LeRoy Aeschliman, will my popularity with the girls to Percy Lukert, may success come quickly to him.

I, Helena Ayers, leave my place in the orchestra to Pat Moser.

I, Forrest Bearg, leave my girl to see if anybody else can get her.

I, Edith Bockenstette, leave my oratorial ability to Beth Puff.

I, Harry Brougher, find it hard to do so, but will consent to leaving my devil-may-care way to Glenn Norrie. Although he has plenty, he needs more.

I, the fun-loving Sally Cave, leave my wit and satirical humor to all those who care to have it.

I, Golda Differderfer, leave my long tresses to cover the head of Alberta Hayden.

I, the home-loving Donna Durstine, leave all my ambitious desires for my own home to Maude Alice Trimble.

I, Harold Fike, cheerfully will my girl, Lizzie, to my little brother, Wilbur.

I, Helen Foster, will my popularity with the boys to my honorable successor, Marie Spiemier.

I, Jeanne Cravatte, leave with great pleasure, my business ability to Dave Hoverson.

I, The good-looking Harold Hennigh, leave with regrets, my manly ways to Ray Christianson.

I, Virgil Henry, will my energetic ways to Brash McDonald.

I, Capt. Lola Hanson, will with regrets, my efficiency in basketball to Agnes Hennis.

I, Elta Hiskey, give with pleasure, my enthusiastic interest in American History to Lester Baskett.

I, Ruth Jackson, my management and ability shall go to Beth Puff.

I, Dorothy Keck, leave my curly hair to Adele Aumiller.

I, Mildred Keim, will my diamonds to Marjory Burke, who is wearing a class ring.

I, Alice King, leave with regrets, my taxi rides at noon to Laurel Ewing.

I, Helen Lanning, leave all my good traits to never be tardy to John Kistner.

I, Marie Lukert, my secretarial ability I leave to Mildred Lines.

I, Ray Martin, leave my ability as a Physic shark, to some poor kid who takes it next year.

I, John Masters, leave my 4:00 P. M., strolls to George Baskett.

I, Kathryn Maynard, bequeath my Historian ability to George Hook.

I, Lyle Myrick, regret to say that all I can will is some good advice—on French, to all French II students next year.

I, Opal Miller, leave my winning ways to Lillian Rogers.

I, Wendell Miller, bequeath my learning in Chemistry to Jack Christine.
I, Gracie Meyers, leave my beloved violin to Vera Keller.
I, Virgil Meyers, leave my popularity to my little brother, Albert.
I, Thelma Meyers, gladly give my primness to my underclassmate, Grace Snyder.
I, Calvin Newlin, leave part of my wit to Lois Kennedy.
I, Lillian Nickels, bequeath my quietness to Mr. Kermit Hutton.
I, Zuella Smith, leave my jumping ability to Jewell Lenherr.
I, Roscoe Smith, place the honorable position of basketball captain to Meade Myrick.
I, Fay Stoner, bequeath my many abilities to Maxine Darby.
I, Dolores Teague, gladly leave my easy going ways to Helen Beauchamp.
I, Helen Wright, leave part of my determinations to Neva Meade.
I, Clear Watters, leave my awkward ways to Leslie Ott.

And I, Virginia Fenner, leave the honorable task of recording these wills and testimonials of the Seniors of 1928, A. D., to Carrie West, and we sincerely hope that their desires are carried out.

HISTORY OF THE JUNIOR CLASS

In the fall of nineteen-hundred-twenty-five, thirty-eight poor little Freshmen Pilgrims started from the S. H. S. Inn on a four-year journey. At the end of this pilgrimage, it seemed that they were to get a slip of paper signed by an Honorable Principal and an Honorable Superintendent, which would release them from such manual labor as pounding typewriter keys or playing with geometrical A B C blocks. This was explained to them at the Inn by high and mighty guides, called Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores. It was also explained that the journey would be much longer if all rules, made by these wonderful guides and certain other high men seen on misty heights, were not obeyed.

So the little Pilgrims plodded wearily on and on through algebraic equations and English themes. Finally they became more courageous and elected these guides from their own people: Marjorie Burke, president; Velma Brougher, vice-president; Lois Kennedy, secretary; and David Hooverson, treasurer. After this, their courage grew and grew, until they became so bold as to mingle with the guides directly in front of them (those called Sophomores) and have a party.

This their first year of traveling was passed with rough roads at the end of every six weeks, a blizzard at the end of the first semester, and floods (of tears) at the end of the second semester.

Oh! What a relief to be a Sophomore; How important it made one feel to be able to stand on the second step and look pityingly on those just starting their perilous journey! The second year of their journey was a voyage. This was a happy year for nearly all the pilgrims, for although the sea was sometimes rough it was not so tiring as walking and they had time to watch some of their lads and lassies become heros and heroines of the football field and basketball court. They quite forgot their discouragement and became interested in gazing with awe at their guides in the distance who prepared a carnival Junior-Senior reception. Right then the Pilgrims decided that the voyage should hold no social affairs for them until they had saved some money for their coming reception.

In May, nineteen-hundred-twenty-seven, their ship came into port and they passed the second year milestone of their journey. Their crew for that voyage were Carrie West, president; Wilbur Masheter, vice-president; Velma Brougher, secretary; and Milton Lichty, treasurer.

Now they are Juniors. Even though they are riding along quite smoothly in New Fords, prosperity has not struck them and they are working hard to earn money enough to entertain their Royal Highnesses, the Seniors. The drivers of the Fords are Wilbur Masheter, president; Martha Fisher, vice-president; Mary Lanning, secretary; and Marjorie Burke, treasurer.

One hardship has befallen the Pilgrims this year. They have been divided into two groups, one commanded by Miss Hause and the other by Mr. Barber. These two groups met December 14, at the Barber Inn and Miss Hause's Pilgrims were entertained by Mr. Barber's Pilgrims. December 16, everyone stopped and rested while Miss Hause's Pilgrims gave a Christmas program. There are many plans for a play, a carnival, and the Junior-Senior reception. All the Pilgrims are striving hard so that they will be rulers of the kingdom on the last year of their journey and all have quite forgotten their former fear of high and mighty guides.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

As we walk along our paths these days, especially if we live in Sabetha and are members of the Sophomore Class, we begin to take more thought of work necessary to prepare curselves for future tasks.

We feel we have been sponsored by the best, Miss Hause, Miss Nicholas, Mr. Hiett, and Mr. Ayrault. Our class officers in the Freshman year were Robert Gravatte, president; Glenn Freeby, vice-president; Dorothy Bungard, secretary and treasurer; this year Viola Weaver, president; Glenn Norrie, vice-president; Lucille Lichty, secretary and treasurer.

As to athletics, the Sophomores would like to mention a few names of which they are proud: Jewell Lehnherr, Agnes Hennis, Alberta Hayden, William Leffler, Culver Moser, Glenn Norrie, Glenn Freeby, Novia Hedrick and last, but not least, our athletic High School Business Manager, Russel Vickery, is of our dignified class of 1930.

Parties have been few, altho much enjoyed, especially the one in the beautiful country home of our class queen, Bertha Heikes.

May we engrave on the pages of History in the next two years, more accomplishments worth while.

FRESHMEN CLASS HISTORY

Full of enthusiasm, still in childhood's verdant stage, some sixty eager seekers after wisdom entered the portals of the Sabetha High School, September 5, 1927. These were known to the upper classmen and faculty as the Freshmen Class.

Shortly after the cpening of school, the class met with Miss Gorsuch and Miss Scruggs, and elected the following officers: Everett Freeby, president; Nelda Kreitzer, vice-president; Oren Stoner, secretary-treasurer.

On October 27, the Freshmen class went on a hike at Albany Hill; they had for their guests, Miss Nicholas and Mr. Barber. They had for refreshments, weenies, buns and ice cream cones, and everyone had an enjoyable time.

The class was represented on the football field by Oren Stoner, Ross McDonald, Roy Rogers, and Everett Freeby, and on the basketball squad by Oren Stoner, Ross McDonald, and Everett Freeby.

Nelda Kreitzer, Lila Stoner, Ines Carpenter, Ruth Heikes and Maxine Darby represented the girls on the basketball squad. The class was also represented in the Glee Clubs, and Orchestra.

The class hopes that all of its members will be back at the school building next September to start together in the Sophomore Class.

ALPHA CLUB

Mr. Hiett, M. Lukert, R. Jackscn, M. Arick, B. Alderfer, E. Weaver, E. Bockenstette, J. Gravatte, Mr. Marks,
H. Beauchamp, N. Strahm, M. Fisher, C. West, W. Masheter, D. Teague, E. McFall, A. Hennis, L. Williamson.

President . . . . . Jeanne Gravatte
Vice-President . . . . . Marion Arick
Sec'y-Treas. . . . . Elaine Weaver

The honorary organization of the High School, namely the Alpha Club, was organized by Mr. Marks in September, 1923. Any one who goes to Sabetha High School and who receives the necessary amount of semester A grades is allowed to join. The club has grown rapidly until now its members number seventy-two.

The requirements for membership are four semester A grades for third class, eight semester A grades for second class, and twelve semester A grades for first class. Sterling silver pins are given those in Class III, gold-filled pins are given those in Class II, and solid gold pins are given those in Class I. There have been twenty-four students from Sabetha High who have received the highest honors since September, 1923.

Those members who are in school and whose pictures are not here are: Virginia Fenner, Viola Weaver, Bertha Hiekes, Max Lyons, and Helen Wright.

"S" CLUB

President . . . . . Clear Watters
Vice-President . . . . . David Hoverson
Sec'y-Treas. . . . . Forrest Bearg

The Sabetha "S" Club is an honorary Athletic Organization of Sabetha High School. Any student who makes a letter in either football, basketball, or track is eligible for membership.

The "S" Club always initiates the new members each year, many of the new members will not soon forget their grand and glorious entrance to the "S" Club.

The purpose of the "S" Club is to promote clean Athletics and good Sportsmanship.

E. Pfleider, R. Christianson.

The High School Orchestra is an organization of long standing, the first efforts along that line having been made nearly ten years ago. The membership changes, but, because there are always some old members to help those who are new, a fine spirit of earnest endeavor and hearty co-operation marks their work. The outside activities of the orchestra include playing at churches, local dinners, and school theatricals. Last year they presented a public program which received favorable comments. Another such program is now in preparation. An addition to the orchestra this year is a fine baritone horn, which instrument was purchased from the music fund and which therefore becomes the property of the school. The instrumentation of the orchestra is as follows: 5 first violins; 4 second violins; 1 clarinet; 2 flutes; 2 first trumpets; 2 second trumpets; 2 saxophones; 1 baritone; piano.

GIRL RESERVE CABINET

N. Strahm, Miss Crocker, V. Brougher, R. Jackson, Miss Hause, M. Lukert, L. Livengood, Miss Nicholas, C. West, L. Cave, H. Beauchamp, M. Fisher

The Girl Reserves, a Christian organization for girls in high school, was first organized under Mr. and Mrs. Rose, in 1923.

This year the club enjoyed many social good times. At the first of the year a get-acquainted party was given, which was cleverly carried out in Captain Kidd style. On December 15, a Christmas Kid party was held in the gym.

The Social Service Committee has done many good things. Baskets for the poor were sent at Thanksgiving.

The Cabinet members for this year were: President, Lucille Cave; Vice-President, Carrie West; Secretary, Marie Lukert; Treasurer, Helen Beauchamp; Program Chairman, Lorine Livengood and Velma Brougher; Social Chairman, Martha Fisher; Social Service, Ruth Jackson; Publicity Chairman, Nettie Strahm; Sponsors, Miss Crocker, Miss Nicholas, Miss Marshall and Miss Hause; Patronesses, Mrs. Rucker, Mrs. Vickery, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Cave, Mrs. Steele.

HI-Y CABINET

Mr. Hiett, Mr. Ayrault, V. Henry, J. Masters, W. Leffler, Mr. Havley, Mr. Marks, D. Mishler, M. Kennedy, R. Vickrey, W. Masheter, H. Brougher, Mr. Barber.

President . . . . . Virgil Henry
Vice-President . . . . . Willie Leffler
Secretary . . . . . Harry Brougher
Treasurer . . . . . Dale Mishler
World Outlook Committee . . . . . Mell Kennedy
Bible Study Committee . . . . . Wilbur Masheter
Program Committee . . . . . Russell Vickery
Sponsor . . . . . Ralph E. Ayrault

Purpose: Is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the School and Community, high standards of Christian Character.

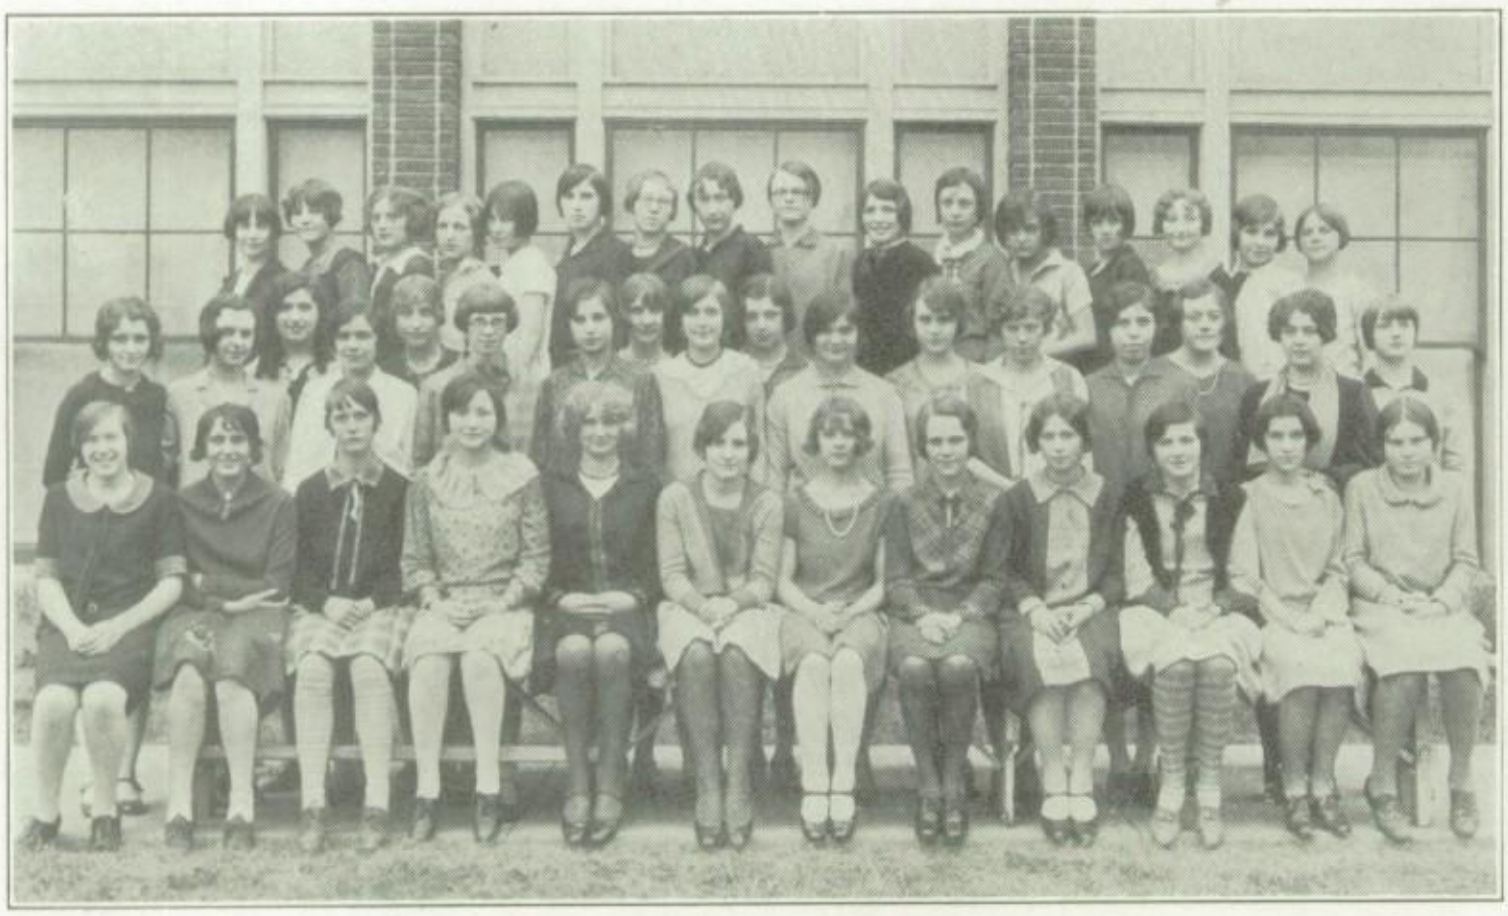
Slogan: Contagious Christian Character.

The Hi-Y was organized in Sabetha High School in 1922, by Mr. C. A. McKinney, who sponsored the Club until the fall of 1924, when the present Sponsor assumed this responsibility.

The privilege extended to all boys in school to attend the regular bi-weekly meetings of the Club, together with the attendance of some in the Annual State Hi-Y Conference, have helped to create a more wholesome influence, not only in S. H. S. but in the community at large.

The increased attendance from years to years indicates a growing interest among boys in the work of the Hi-Y. I would want no better recommendation. Many boys who have gone out from S. H. S. have paid their tribute to the religious influence of the Hi-Y in their lives. As time goes on, we want the Sabetha Hi-Y Club to become a more dynamic force in the School and Community.

Let us add our word of appreciation for the support of: Mr. Hiett, Mr. Marks, Mr. Havley, and Mr. Barber.



GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

E. Bowman, I, Carpenter, O. Lichty, L. Lichty, M. Ewing, H. Corwin, M. Spielmeier, F. Stoner, B. Pautz, E. Baumgartner, M. Lanning, M. Burke, H. Newman, M. Fisher, M. Trimple, D. Leuthold,

D. Durstine, M. Line, B. Heikes, G. Differderfer, L. Stoner, K. Maynard, D. Bungard, H. Wright, N. Kreitzer, H. Foster, B. Puff, E. Bockenstette, D. Maynard, V. Keller, L, Cave, L. Kennedy, E. Bechtelheimer,

M. Darby, L. Williamson, R. Rucker, J. Lenherr, V. Brougher, H. Beauchamp, C. West, L. Ewing, V. Bestwick, R. Heikes, J. Erwin, M. Althouse.

The only requirements for membership in the Girls' Glee Club is the ability to read music in the treble cleff. This fact made it possible for between forty and fifty girls of S. H. S. to become members of the organization. Their music consists mostly of two and three part work, both accompanied and "a capella," and such technical details necessarily involved in the singing of such material. The girls of the Glee Clubs made up the personnel of the choruses and were largely responsible for the success of the annual high school music comedy, "All Aboard," which was presented in November. At present they are busily engaged in the preparation of "My Maid on the Bamboo Screen," a Chinese operetta, to be given in the near future.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

J. Christine, H. Fike, J. Masters, V. Henry, G. Freeby, O. Stoner, J. Kistner, G. Anderson, R. Davisson, F. Bearg, K. Hutton, M. Kreitzer, W. Leffler, R. Deaver, R. Vickory, D. Hoverson, L. Kennedy, M. Kennedy, G. Ayers, N. Hedrick.

Membership in the Boys' Glee Club is gained through a series of voice try-outs. Any boy desiring membership may have a voice test involving quality, volume, range and reading ability. Such details give the director an idea of the boys' possibilities and enable her to put him at work on the part to which his voice is best adapted. This year's club has a membership of twenty boys, who sing "regular four-part harmony." At present they are working toward the 1928 District Contest with the sincere hope of surpassing their admirable record of last year, when they won second place.

SABETHAN STAFF

H. Foster, M. Arick, J. Masters, C. Watters, B. Alderfer, H. Fike, R. Martin, W. Miller, D. Durstine, L. Cave, Miss Nicholas, L. Ewing, R. Rucker, M. Darby, O. Miller.

Because of a deficit carried over from previous years The High School Sabethan has been forced to retrench this year. Instead of the usual bi-weekly newspaper, a small, but lively mimeographed paper of four pages was issued weekly during the first semester. The copy was prepared as usual, by the journalism class, under the direction of Miss Nicholas, and the mechanical end of the work was done by the advanced typewriting class, taught by Mr. Hiett.

The second semester, through the courtesy of Mr. Chauncey Durst, a page of The Sabetha Star was allowed the class each week, and the mimeographed paper was discontinued.

While the appearance of the paper can not, under the circumstances, be equal to that of other years, yet this plan is not without its advantages. In this way the news is really news, because it is printed weekly. Then, too, different members of the class have had a chance to try their hand at different positions on the editorial staff, an opportunity which could not well be given where more is at stake, as in the publication of a large paper.

DEBATE TEAM

E. Bockenstette, M. Lukert, E. Weaver, Mr. Marks, M. Arick, H. Beauchamp, E. Puff.

The Sabetha High School is a member of the Kansas State High School Debating League. The whole state is divided into twelve different districts. Sabetha belongs to Class A, in District No. 1. Our debate teams also represent Sabetha in the Big Seven Conference.

During the year 1927-1928 our debate teams contested with Troy, Atchison, Holton, Horton and Hiawatha. Out of a total of fifteen decisions in this series of debates Sabetha won nine. This is a splendid record when one considers that the teams were without previous experience. This placed our debate teams third in the Conference and third in the First District.

The question debated was:

RESOLVED: That Federal legislation embodying the principles of the McNary-Haugen Bill should be enacted into law as passed by the Sixty-ninth Congress, second session.

The members of our debate teams were:

Affirmative	Negative
Helen Beauchamp	Edith Bockenstette
Elizabeth Puff	Marion Arick
Marie Lukert, Alternate	Elaine Weaver, Alternate

FOOTBALL

The Sabetha 1927 Football team ended a very successful season Thanksgiving Day by defeating Seneca 39 to 0. Out of a total of 11 games played during the season they won 7, lost 3, and tied one. The three games that were lost were by small margins, the first being to Holton 6 to 0, the next to Atchison 13 to 0, the last to Horton 13 to 6. They played a scoreless tie with Troy, winners of the Big Seven Conference.

At the first of the season there were only five letter men out, but Coach Havley soon had a team of them and the new material. At the close of the season there were 15 letters issued, three of these were to Seniors. The Seniors leaving are Smith, Watters, and Bearg. The team will feel the loss of these Seniors, but with 12 letter men left under the leadership of Capt. Masheters there is hope of a very successful season next year.

FAY STONER

Hit 'em high,
Hit 'em low,
Yea Sabetha,
Let's go.

Down our line,
Our famous line,
You know everybody
And they all know you,
And all our opponents say
How do you do?
Games by the score,
Touchdowns galore,
And that old gang of mine,
Says "hold them this time,"
Down our line.

HARRY BROUGHER

Fay Stoner, we're sure is known to us all,
For she led us in yells and played basket ball,
A more faithful girl could not have been found,
She cheers and makes happy those she's around.

Our cheer leader, Harry Brougher, has climbed up to fame
In singing and cheering, he encouraged the game.
He taught us to yell and cheer with great might,
Yea Blue, Yea White, Yea Sabetha, let's fight.

BOOSTING THE OLD HIGH SCHOOL

Faithful and true-hearted, Let us cheer our dear "Old High,"
We revere her and defend her, And her colors proudly fly;
We will stand for her, united, Of her deeds we gladly tell,
Her colors streaming, Glad faces beaming, So here's a cheer for her that we all love so well.

CHORUS:

Joyous and ever loyal, Let us boost for our "Old High,"
Let every heart sing, Let every voice ring, There's no time to grieve or sigh;
It's ever onward, our course pursuing, May defeat ne'er our ardor cool,
But united, We will boost her her, our Old High School!

BASKET BALL

The Sabetha basket ball team finished a very successful season at the state tournament at Winfield, when they were defeated by Winfield, the state champions. They won a total of four first place cups, three at tournaments and one for the Big Seven Championship. They also won twenty-seven out of thirty-four games, and won sixteen straight without a defeat. Four of the first team made all tournament teams; these are Watters, Smith, Stoner, and Norrie.

They won the Big Seven Conference with ten wins and two defeats. They won first in the Northeast Kansas Invitation Tournament held at Sabetha, the Axtell Invitation Tournament, the District Tournament, and went to the finals of the MINK Tournament at Peru, Nebr.

Three letter men are lost by graduation: Smith, Watters, and Martin. But with five letter men back, and the new material, there are prospects for another Championship Team next year.

COACH HAVLEY

Who comes to us from K. S. A. C. and gave Sabetha High first district winning basket ball team.

MEADE MYRICK
Junior.
2 letter man. Forward.

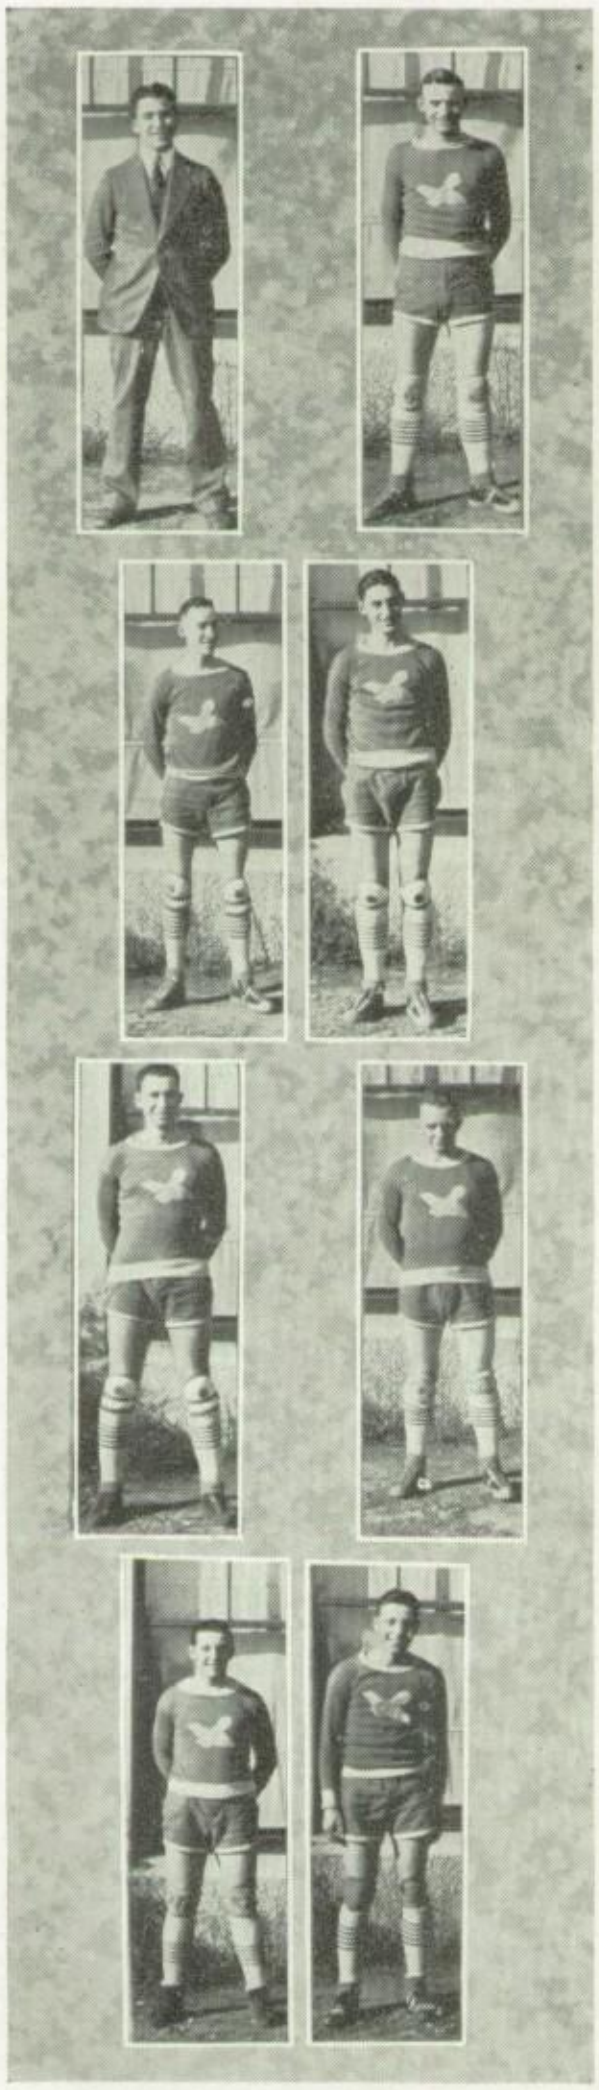
The best money player on the team, a clever floor man who will be a heavier scorer next year.

CLEAR WATTERS
Senior.
4 letter man. Center.

A player with college ability. The high scorer of season, scoring upwards of 300 points. Making all-star teams. A clever, conscientious player who should go far in college.

DAVE HOVERSON
Junior.
1 letter man. Utility.

The best utility man in the country, played all positions and played them well. Those who saw his last second goal to win the district will not dispute that he is the spark plug of the team.



"PONT" SMITH, Capt.
Senior.
2 letter man. Guard.

One of the best defensive guards in the state. Made most all tournament teams, will be sadly missed.

OREN STONER
Freshman.
1 letter man. Forward.

A Freshman who developed into one of the best in the country. He should make history for Sabetha High. A wonderful floor worker and above the average scorer.

"STUB" NORRIE
Sophomore
2 letter man. Guard.

A small man who made fight and determination win him a regular position with men his superior in physique. To be a mainstay next year.

"BRASH" McDONALD
Freshman.
1 letter man. Forward and Guard.

A youngster with a great spirit and plenty of ability. Will be a regular next year. The eating champion and sheik of the team.

RAY MARTIN

A Senior who won his letter late in the season proved to be a valuable utility man.

GIRLS BASKET BALL SQUAD

O. Miller, R. Heikes, A. Hayden, Z. Smith, J. Lenherr, L. Stoner, N. Kreitzer, F. Stoner, Coach M. Crocker.

N. Mead, I. Carpenter, A. Hennis, L. Hanson, D. Maynard, L. Nickles, C. West, M. Darby.

Out of sixteen girls on the basket ball squad this year, nine of them received their basket ball letters. Four of the girls receiving letters this year are Seniors, leaving five letter girls for the next years team. Lola Hanson, the captain of the 1927-28 squad, created a very excellent spirit of co-operation among the girls; for the year 1928-29 Agnes Hennis will be captain. Agnes was chosen in the Big Seven Conference as running center on the first team, while Doris Maynard was chosen as forward on the second team.

Even though the girls received a number of defeats they were successful in learning the lesson of true sportsmanship.

"BE AN OPTIMIST"

"BE AN OPTIMIST"

The Seniors wished to choose a play different from any other type of play that was given, so they chose "Be An Optimist," which was presented April 25.

Isaac Golditch has an antique shop in which Becky, his daughter, makes antique pictures. Pietro, an Italian, is one of his helpers while Mike is an all-around restorer. Mrs. Clinton, who is a fiend for antiques, has purchased an Egyptian mummy, which is broken in handling. Jimmie Maynard volunteers to act as mummy, in Mrs. Clinton's home during the Oriental Ball, as he is interested in Mrs. Clinton's daughter, Mildred. Mrs. Clinton thinks the mummy is so attractive. Jimmy has to eat cat meat, drink fish water, while Ray Hudson is making love to Mildred. At the Oriental Ball, Madam Goopher, a dispenser of spirits, gives Jimmie a chance to win Mrs. Clinton on his side, for he takes the floor from Madam Goopher and reveals the truth of Mrs. Clinton's jealousy and while under the strain, she relents, making it possible for Jimmy to have Mildred.

Harry Brougher was very unusual as a Jewish salesman, and George Ayers could not have been better. Roscoe Smith willingly suffered agony for the sake of the Seniors. The cast was: Isaac Golditch, Harry Brougher; Becky, Jeanne Gravatte; Pietro D'Angelo Caccialino, George Ayers; Jimmie Maynard, Roscoe Smith; Mildred Clinton, Edith Bockenstette; Mrs. Clinton, Elaine Weaver; Mike, Virgil Henry; Ray Hudson, Harold Hennigh; Miss Hull, Lorene Livengood; Maggie, Marian Arick; Ethel Peabody, Virginia Fenner; Madam Goopher, Helen Foster. Guests at the ball, Donna Durstine, Dolores Teague, Marie Lukert.

There were specialties between acts, the first of which was given by five grade school children: Donna Hughes, Maxine Sheldon, Kathleen Burner, Catherine Masters, Marjorie Benson. "Is She My Girl Friend?" Fay Stoner, Helen Wright, Mildred Keim, Marie Lukert, Helena Ayers, Golda Diffenderfer, Kathryn Maynard, Helen Lanning. The last, "Together," by Donna Durstine, Dolores Teague, Forrest Bearg and Lyle Myrick.

"SNEAK DAY

The Seniors chose May 1 for the annual Sneak Day, and a nicer day could not have been had. It was a happy, jolly group of Seniors that met at the School House at 8 o'clock, to go for a whole day's lark.

The majority of the class went to Topeka, some to St. Joseph, and a few to Kansas City. Those who went to Topeka met at Gage Park, and took in the scenery, then went to the capitol building where many climbed to the dome. After dinner, in cafeterias, restaurants, hotels, and various other places, some spent the afternoon in town seeing and attending theatres. Many visited the State Hospital and were taken through, while others went to the museum. A number of Seniors enjoyed the free elevator rides and took advantage of them, especially in the Santa Fe building. There were a few who did not get to go because of lack of cars, but all who did go had a good time and wished for another day off to rest up (especially some who went to the dome.)

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

A portion of New York City, called Greenwich Village, was moved to the high school gymnasium Friday night, April 27, when the Juniors entertained the Seniors with a banquet. Greenwich Village is an artists' colony, so the artists idea was carried out in decorations and program. The colors used throughout were orange and green with black trimming. For the banquet, quartet tables were used with table cloths of white bordered in orange and green. The favors were small artists dressed in green tams, orange smocks, and black trousers and bow-ties. They were standing at each place by a gold easel on which the menu was placed. Near the easel, with a small paint brush attached to it with orange ribbon, was a paint pot which served as the nut cup with the place card attached. The programs were orange colored paillettes, with splotches of paint on them. The centerpieces were miniature artists painting a landscape scene on an easel. Real artists dressed in orange smocks, green tams, black trousers and ties ably served the banquet. The food carried out the green and orange color scheme.

D. Atherton's orchestra played during the banquet. The first number on the program, which came between courses, was a stunt dance called "Howdy!" by six Junior High girls. "Strokes of Welcome," was given by Wilbur Masheter, Junior president. The response, "Finishing Touches," followed by George Ayers, Senior president. "Dashes of Color," was a dance by the Junior high girls. "Retrospection"—the Senior Class History, was given by Bernice Alderfer. Martha Fisher gave the Senior Prophecy, called "Introspection." Underclassmen who assisted on the program were Lahoma Williamson, Reine Rucker, and Elizabeth Bowman.

This year in place of the usual junior play, the class voted to use a different method of increasing the size of their bank balance.

On the evening of February 17, the halls and gymnasium of S. H. S. were turned into a carnival grounds for a few hours of festivity and fun. Various class rooms were converted into show tents, the halls formed a pike along which were arranged booths. It was from these that candy, pink lemonade, and novelties were dispensed. An Antique Shop, the inevitable fortune teller and his magic light that caused fortunes to appear on blank paper. The zoo had real animals in it, too.

Carnivals are noted for their games of chance. Here the Fish Pond brought out the desires of many for luring the finny tribe from their haunts. In this case, however, the "fish" would not have met the orthodox anglers definition of the term.

The flaming cheeks of the girls and the desperate Desmond moustaches which appeared as if by magic on the boys attested the fact that the Beauty Parlor was well and frequently patronized.

All carnivals have their free attractions. These usually precede the opening of the carnival attractions. But the Juniors decided to reverse the accepted order of things and as the evening's fun was drawing to a close, the auditorium stage was the setting for a play, "Tickets Please." In this appeared Martha Fisher, Velma Brougher, Carrie West and Delta Fletchall.

Following the play came the auctioning of the boxes prepared for the box supper that ended the evening fun.

The Juniors felt that this venture into something different was fun, interesting, and hope that their patrons enjoyed the evening as much as they did.

MY MAID ON THE BAMBOO SCREEN

"My Maid On the Bamboo Screen," was the name of the Chinese operetta chosen for presentation by the Girl's Glee Club of Sabetha High School, on Friday, March 30, 1928.

A three-act fantasy with an unique and bewildering plot, "My Maid On the Bamboo Screen," was spectacular to see as well as interesting to hear. Much time and money was spent in order to make the production as Chinese as possible, and the results were most affective. Leading roles were taken by Lucille Cave and Jewell Lenherr as the Maids on the bamboo screen; Fay Stoner and Velma Brougher as the princess; Maude Alyce Trimble and Helen Beauchamp as the makers of dreams; Helen Foster as the Empress; and Laurel Ewing as the Emperor. Comedy roles were played by Beth Puff as Prime Minister and Lord High Executioner of the Court of China; and Martha and Mary Lanning, who played as chief nuisances.

G. R. DAD AND DAUGHTER BANQUET

The banquet held March 6, was a success from every standpoint. About eighty enjoyed the delicious dinner served by Miss Crocker's cooking class. The menu consisted of scalloped chicken, potatoes in half shell, creamed peas and carrots on timbales, white salad, brick ice cream and cake.

The program was planned so that the initial letters spelled "Our Dads." O-pportunity, Edith Bockenstette; U-nity, Virginia Fenner; R-everence, Velma Broughter; D-ainty Steps, Dolores Teague and Lahoma Williamson; A-ttempt, Bernice Alderfer; D-uet, Thelma Carpenter and Mr. Carpenter; S-astifaction, Mr. Rucker. These talks gave us a new light on why we should respect our dads.

ALL ABOARD

Each year S. H. S. sponsors an all-school music comedy, proceeds from which go into the music found. On November 8, 1927, "All Aboard," a screaming farce, was presented at Memorial Hall. Principal roles were interpreted by local talent entirely, while the chorus groups were filled by members of the glee clubs and others of the student body who were willing to contribute time and effort.

The scenes of the play were laid on board the steamship Florida, and the plots dealt with the trials and tribulations of a collegiate who had lost two front teeth in a football game and was forced, to his chagrin, to wear false teeth in their stead. Billy Brady, the unfortunate youth, was played in capital style by Professor Barber. Johnny Thomas, his pal and erstwhile rival, was done by Carl Wyman. Virginia Fenner, as Beatrice Sloan, played extremely well as Billy's sweetheart. Helen Christine was chosen to play the role of Dorothy Brady, the sister and "little helper" of Billy. Mrs. Sloan, the mother of Beatrice, was a fairly difficult role, well done by Edith Carlson, Frank Porter, as Alexander C. Phome, a negro porter, and Inez Archer as a Swedish stewardess.

Patrons commend the performance most highly, declaring it one of the very best ever given. Financial returns were highly satisfactorily. The play was given under the direction of Miss Helene Mahoney, personal representative of the John B. Rogers Producing Co.

"IT HAPPENED IN JUNE"

"It Happened In June," a three-act comedy was presented by the High School April 17. The cast was chosen from the entire school and coached by Mr. Garber.

The play was indeed a comedy with a laugh in every line. The scene was laid in the home of Betty Branson, a young lady who owned the Shady Grove Store. Her mother had made arrangements with a wealthy eastern man to be a guardian to his "wild" young son, Charles Athens, but was suddenly taken sick and sent to Colorado. Before she left she laughingly turned the taming job over to Betty. Young Athens was the owner of the Norris Company, whose store in Shady Grove was managed by Jarvis Sneed, and offered quite a bit of competition for the Branson Store. In order to get Athens to come to Shady Grove, his uncle hires him as the representative of the Norris Company to put the Shady Grove Store out of business.

Charles, deciding he must have some diversion in this little country town, writes to Mrs. Branson for the name of a snappy young girl. As Mr. Branson is in Colorado, Betty opens the letter and she and her girl friend, Susie Crundel, send him the name and address of Evalina Sccggs, the homeliest girl in town.

Finally the gentleman arrives, bringing with him his friend, Bandy Stewart, who sells insurance. They are not much pleased with the prospects but are somewhat consoled by the odors of the fine dinner Mollie Jesop, cook for the Bransons, has prepared. Their introduction is made somewhat embarassing by Nell Crundel, a sixteen-year-old sister of Susie, who boldly asks the gentlemen which of them is the "wild man." The first act ends with the tragical meeting of Evalina and Charlie, who are introduced by awkward Jim Prichett.

Before the play ends Susie is engaged to Randy, and Betty and Charlie form a life partnership.

The cast included: Betty Branson, Laurel Ewing; Susie Crundel, Martha Fisher; Nell Crundel, Melba Ewing; Mollie Jesup, Beth Puff; Evalina Scroggs, Helen Beauchamp; Charles Atkins, Lyle Myrick; Randy Stewart, Russel Vickery; Jim Prichett, Russel Miller; Jarvis Sneed, Milton Lichty.

"THAT'S THAT"

"That's That," a breezy musical comedy, was presented at the Memorial Hall, May 15, under the auspices of the Sabetha High School. Helene Mahoney, professional director from the John B. Rogers Producing Co., of Fostoria, Ohio, had charge of the rehearsals. It was one of the most successful productions ever presented here because of its combination of peppy fun, quick tempo dancing, pleasing melodies, and engaging plot.

Scenes were laid in a hotel at Palm Beach, Florida. The plot was based on the love affair of Kenneth Neilson, son of a wealthy bottle king, who while posing as a life guard under the name of Kenneth Jones, rescues and falls in love with Eloise Reswick, Florida society belle. Wishing to continue his romance under his assumed name, Kenneth did not reveal his true identity, and when his father and sister arrive at the beach, he manages to elude his father but is discovered by his sister. While embracing her he is discovered by Eloise, and being unable to explain matters, many complications set in which make a very fascinating story. A humorous side to the production was afforded by the romance of Eddie Dewey, a young farmer, who engages in Florida real estate business, with his former sweetheart, Letitia, from his "home town" and now a social climber, and Martin Mooris, Kenneth's room-mate at college with Nannette, Kenneth's flirtatious sister. Martin is an avowed woman-hater, but when he meets Nanette, the tables change and he presents his resignation to the Woman Hater's "Union." Added to this and building up the comedy further, one Micky Sullivan and Mamie Remin, Bowery sweethearts, with all the characteristics of the proverbial "East Siders" arrived in Palm Beach to take in the sights.

THE HI-Y CLUB

The Sabetha Hi-Y this year has enjoyed the support of more boys than ever before. The number of boys actually signing membership cards is about the same as usual, but the average attendance has been better than in any previous year.

The primary purpose of the Hi-Y is to deepen the spiritual life of the boys of S. H. S. and not to duplicate in any phase of its program, the work of the local churches. We trust that this ideal has been more fully realized this year than ever before. R. E. Ayrault, sponsor.

Officers this year are:

Dentist: "Which tooth is it, Sam, that troubles you?"
Pullman Porter: "Lower five, suh."

"They say if there's anything in a man, travel will bring it out."
"You tell 'em! I found that out my first day at sea."

Father: "Is that young man gone yet?"
Daughter: "Nearly Daddy. He found where you kept your cigars."

A wealthy motorist, while touring through Georgia, drove up to a gasoline station and found the tender a lazy country boy.
"Here, boy," said the motorist, "I want some gasoline. Get a move on you. You'll never get anywhere unless you push. Push is essential. When I was youug, I pushed and that got me where I am."
"Well, boss," said the boy, "reckon as how you'll have to push again, 'cause we haven't a drop of gas in the place."

Percy Lukert: (to man with bandaged foot) "You have hurt your foot?"
Fed-up-one: "No my head—but when I walk the bandage slips."

Teacher: "Now, suppose I am leaving the school and a man comes up to me, gives me a blow which knocks me down and my head strikes the pavement with great force and I am killed. What is the consequencs?"
Bright Pupil: "We would all have a holiday."

"Together We Two" lived in our "Bungalow of Dreams"
But the "Song Was Ended" when "She Left Me Cold."
I lived "Among My Souveniers" in my "Rickety Rackety Shack"
With "Muddy Waters" in my shoes, while the "Rain" was pouring fast.
"Forgive Me" she said, you "Dreamer of Dreams"
"You Can't Make a Lady Out of Lizzie."
Then I heard "The Song of the Dying Hobos."
When "I Ain't Got Nobody" "I'll Think of You"
"Sometimes I'm Happy" because it "All Depends On You."
But "Did You Mean It" when you sang "Desert Love Song" "Under the Moon."
But she said "My Cuties Due" and "I Gotta See Papa" before we go riding, "In My Gondola"
Then back "In My Blue Heaven" I heard "Baby Steps On The Stairs"
And strains of "Ten Pan Parade" because "My Red Hot Mama" couldn't sing "The Russian Lullaby"
So we "Kissed and Made Up" and wandered down "Memory Lane"
Then she said, "Baby Your Mother, Like She Babies You"
And then "I Lost My Heart."

Mr. Hiett: (In short hand class) "You must have a good form to hold your job."
Results: Loud snickering from boys and girls.

Elizabeth Bowman: "What is a divorce suit?"
L. Christianson: "The opposite form of a union suit."

V. Fenner: "Isn't the price for this parrot pretty high?"
H. Fike: "But it was brought up in one of the most fashionable homes."
V. Fenner: "How do you know?,"
H. Fike: "It always begins to talk when Dolores Teague starts to sing."

Dear Chaperon:

I am still a young man still under twenty one; I have a fair complexion, rather unrully blond hair and large expressive eyes. I live in a white house with a barn in the back yard. I have a nice driving horse and a good buggy although it has no top but I always carry an umbrella in rainy weather.

My only trouble is the lack of popularity with the girls. I asked Marie to go to the show with me the other night and she refused me flatly. Thinking the poor girl in financial embarrasement I told her I would pay her way, but she gave me such a cold stare that my heart jumped up in my throat and it didn't get back for nearly thirty minutes.

I have been taking private dancing lessons from Albert Meyers and John Masters but so far have not accomplished very much.

I am enclosing a stamped envelope and wish a reply, how to become an all around good Sheik.

Yours in distress,
Woodrow Stalder

Wall Motto for a Grouch's Guest Room

Dear Friend: Within this cheerless room
I hope you find the deepest gloom,
I hope the barking of my pup
At dawn wlll rudely wake you up,
May Hulda's coffee grinder keep
Yuor weary eyes from soothing sleep,
And may my wee, annoying son
Come in at six to have some fun,
May frigid winds and sheets of rain
Blow in upon your counterpane,
And may you leave our friendly fold
The sad possessor of a cold,
May dorlful dreams and gloom attend
Your night wiih us, beloved friend,
Three things we wish for you, our guest:
Mosquitoes, mice and lack of rest.

TO EDITH

Roses are red,
Violets are blue
But they're too expansive
For me to give you.

A traffic light
Means "Stop" when red—
But lips that are
Mean "Go Ahead."

He: "I tell you it's wrong."
She: "But I want you to——so bad."
He: "You said that same thing last time."
She: "I know—but please."
He (Weakening) "If you'll promise never to ask me again——."
She: (Triumphantly) "Sure."
So once again he agreed to work her math for the following day.

On these terrible cloudy days
What makes kids so gloomy?
Why do people have to say
What's the matter loony?
Then you stand and kick your toe
Against the school-house property.
Why they ever ask you that
I think they're a little dotty.
Finally you tell 'em in a low tone,
Sullen and melancholy,
Well if you will dismiss school
It wouldn't be hard to be jolly.

Why did Mildred break her engagement with Jack?
She tried to cut her initials on a window with the diamond he gave her.
Didn't it work?
Well, when she looked for the initials she found them on the diamond.
